There is no other class, who insist so thoroughly on misapprehending and misrepresenting us, I say not this to excite prejudice against them. They are ignorant, and their ignorance is not their own fault, though it is their and our mistortune. They are misled, and we are unniated in their ears. Why, I have been repeatedly asked to contradict assertions that I have been a negro trader. They will absolutely, and that all the pretensions of the Cincinnati platform and Baltimore indorsement in favor of equal rights are frauds, are lies. If this party succeeds, says Mr. Wendell Phillips, you must conceal your property and take care of your arms. Now, fellow-citizens, I state these facts here not that I would have you think any worse of this misguided people; I state them because I want you Kentuckians to realize that ignorance is a public peril; that you cannot well afford to have any part of your people growing up in that dense unacquaintance with public order and public affairs that they can be deceived and misled as this people are. > Greeley's Admirable Speech touching off the Officeholders who Earn their Bread by Racing over the Country Making Partisan Harangues.

SUNBURY, Pa., Sept. 26th, 1872. Mr. Greeley made a speech at Williams-port, Pa., this evening. He commenced by calling attention to the administration, cabinet ministers, and officeholders, running and racing from one end of the country to the other, to persuade the people to keep them in office. I think that is something to which the people ought not to be reconciled to; of course "like master, like man." The whole body of officeholders, 50,000 to 75,-000 generally influential men are devoting their time and talents to re-electing their superiors to office and thereby keeping ABERDEEN, Monroe county, TUESDAY themselves in place. I venture to say that since the first day of May last, Federal officeholders have done more work and de-voted more attention to keeping their pla-ces than they have to doing their duty, all of them enormously taxed and their enerand energies, that belong to the people, for which the people have paid, and of which | Alcorn. the people ought to have the advantages. [Cries of "That's so."] Now take my excellent friend, Gen. Harriman, (laughter) who is here, to make a speech to-night for Grant | Col. Wm. H. McCardle, Gen. S. J. Gholson and Wilson. He will make a good one-he is a good talker. As I understand the case, General Harriman is naval officer of the port of Boston, a responsible position, with a good salary, which he doubtless earns, but here he is earning it speaking in Pennsylvania. [Laughter.] I have found him also in Connecticut, in Maine, and so on. How under heaven can he be earning the money the Federal treasury. [Great applause.] Now there is another point to which the ought not be paid for making them out of people are not likely to be reconciled, and that is the enormous use of money in this election. In all the elections held, from George Washington down to the present time, there has not been so much money spent by both parties as in this election by the Grant party alone. They have their treas-contention concerning black men or white their large dividend-dividends five times as large as the capital invested. I tell you that right down in honest old Vermont, where the people never heard of money being paid before, their money was poured out like water to induce the Democrats to vote the Grant ticket or stay away from the polls. So in Maine. A hundred thousand dollars were paid in Maine for votes. Now, gentlemen, if they elect their ticket this fall, it will be because they have one hundred thousand dollars to our one. Mr. Greeley continued at some length touching upon the most important topics of

A LUNATIC ASYLUM STARVED OUT.

The South Carolina papers publish two letters from Mr. Enson, the superintendent of the lunatic asylum of that State, begging for a loan of $5,000 to carry on the institu tion. In one of them he says: "Owing to the tightness of the money market I am unable to borrow money with which to buy provisions, and unless we can obtain a further credit for supplies the inmates of the institution must suffer for want of the necessaries of life or be turned out into the streets, dependents upon individual charity, as the State has proven utterly incompetent to provide for them. We have now but one day's supplies on hand, and unnot hear us. They do not believe us. They less relief is afforded, day after to-morrow will find nearly four hundred human beings to get them enslaved again, virtually, if not in this asylum suffering for something to eat. In the name of God and humanity, beg you to help them if you can." The Columbia (S. C.) Phæntx. commenting on this extraordinary appeal from the superintendent of a State institution, says: " Not a single dollar of this year's appro priation for the asylum has been paid. taxes from which the appropriation was designed to be drawn, were collected last fall and winter, but they were all squandered in legislative expenses, meeting drafts upo the bogus armed-force fund, and such like swindles. The asylum, the penitentiary the public schools, and all other proper ob jects of governmental care and support, have suffered terribly in consequence asylum has been kept going up to this time simply through the personal exertions of the superintendent and the assistance rendered him by private individuals."

The Increase of our State Taxes

RADICAL RULE.

From the Copiahan. In 1871 the State and county taxes were as follows: County tax 16e " School tax 60e " " $6 00 Making total $1 30 cents on $100 or $13 20

This year (1872) the State and County tax 85c Making total $1 54% cents on $100 or $15 47 cents on $1000. So it will be seen by the tax-payers that they owe the increase of their taxes to the act of the last Radical Legislature, raising the State tax from $4 on the $1000, to $8 50 on the $1000—more than doubling the State tax; and they have besides, issued near $2,000,000 of bonds of the State, drawing 8 per cent. interest. If the people do not put the Radicals out of power, they will be taxed out of their property and earnings.
